

Now I can...

get back in the groove

"If I could walk, I would be flat out the door."

When Chris Gill wrote the lyrics for "Hospital Blues," he feared his music career might be over. An 18-wheeler had crashed into his SUV, leaving Chris with a severe brain injury and broken bones from head to toe.

But therapy at Methodist Rehab Center helped Chris get back to playing his signature "island blues." And now he sings the praises of MRC staff. "They are so caring and giving," he says. "They are helping people every day."
